III. Reading Comprehension 1: A Terrible Trip (20 points)

Last year, Alex and his family decided to go on vacation to the mountains. They packed their bags and left early on Saturday morning. The trip started well, but after two hours, their car broke down. They waited on the side of the road for three hours until a mechanic fixed it. When they finally arrived at the hotel, it was late at night, and they were very tired. The next morning, it rained all day, so they couldn't go hiking. They stayed in their hotel room and played board games. They didn't have fun on their vacation, so they returned home early.

A. Answer the questions based on the text:

1. Where did Alex and his family go on vacation?

2. What happened to their car after two hours?

3. Why couldn't they go hiking the next morning?

4. What did they do in the hotel room?

B. Write True (T) or False (F):

___ 1. They left for their trip on Sunday morning.

___ 2. They waited for a mechanic for exactly three hours.

___ 3. They returned home late because they loved the hotel.

___ 4. It rained the day after they arrived.
